GENEALOGY FROM PARUR ROOT

EARLY HISTORY

The Panikulam family (or "Panikulangara" as it was originally known) has a tradition, attached to its establishment at North Parur in the former Travancore State. Joseph a member of the ancient Panikulam stock at Moozhikulam fell out with the local 'Naduvazhi' and shifted to North Parur in the year 1725. He bought a plot of land at Pashayangadi and built his new home there. This house gave rise to another family name "Puthenveetil". Later on, Joseph sold this property and bought another in the south where he made his house. Since then this family has come to be known as "Thekkeputhenveedu". The branches of the Panikulam family have now spread over to Ambazhakad (Vynthala) Kattoor, and many other places.

Joseph had two sons Kunjuvareed and Chackucheria. Kunjuvareed lived at the Parur home and had two sons Joseph and Ittoop and a daughter Mathiri.

Chackucheria married Achunni, the only daughter of Tharian of Moonjely family, Angamaly. He was adopted into that family and he is the founder of the Edat branch of Panikulam family which is now known as Moonjely family.

Joseph the 2nd son of Kunjuvareed, became a priest and was the vicar for very many years in his own parish church of Parur and later of Moozhikulam church where he passed away in the year 1853 at the age of 58.
